

Creating a Children's Book Student Worksheet 2: Story Map

When you have finished a story web, the next step is to story map. Map a story that will not be longer than ten pages (including pictures), with about 60 words per page or less.

Story Map

Author(s):
Working title of the story:
Main idea behind the story (one sentence):
Characters:
Describe your main character and other characters, including appearance, habits, interests, etc.

Plot Beginning:
This is the problem that starts the	story.
Plot Beginning: Reaction and O	Outcome:
This is how the main character de
This is how the main character de
Plot Beginning: Reaction and O This is how the main character de  Middle: This is where the second problem Explain how the characters deal v	happens, and any more problems that come up.
This is how the main character de  Middle:  This is where the second problem	happens, and any more problems that come up.
This is how the main character de  Middle:  This is where the second problem	happens, and any more problems that come up.

End: Here all the problems are solved. How will your story end?

	End:
		olems are solved	d. How will vo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?
		olems are solved	d. How will yo	our story end?	